GENOA MERCHANTS MEETING

Attendance: Dave Grosjean, Teresa Lewis, Barb Flietz, Cheryl Grosjean, Jean Holcombe, Ken Harsanje, Chief Brad Weis, Todd Mocniak and Marsha Lee

Dave reported that Rebecca Booth has the letterhead designed for Homecoming. It incorporates the logo and the theme for the homecoming/sesquicentennial.

Comments from the Mayor: Two properties that were turned over to the Ottawa County land bank have been demolished. A couple more have been earmarked for the future. Grants have been awarded for improvements for the Town Hall. The speed limit for Genoa Clay Center Road between SR51 and Hellwig Roads is now 45mph both ways. Watch your speed. The Bike Trail is progressing. They will be looking at a design engineer to help with the project.

Good luck to the individual Genoa wrestlers that will be competing at State this weekend. Good luck wrestlers!

Powers Glass Bar & Grill is progressing and hopes to be open by Homecoming.

The Grain House will now be open every Friday in addition to their regular hours.

Just a Reminder: Merchant Meetings will be held the first and third Tuesday of each month. Our next meeting will be March 20, 2018 at Rayz Café.
